ARI Employment Opportunity: Social Media Specialist

The Ayn Rand Institute (ARI) fosters a growing awareness, understanding and acceptance of Ayn Rand’s philosophy, Objectivism, in order to create a culture guided by reason, rational self-interest, individualism and laissez-faire capitalism—a culture in which individuals are free to pursue their own happiness.

ARI seeks a Social Media Specialist to maintain and grow ARI’s social media presence by fostering an online community across social media platforms, and leveraging these channels to connect our followers with ARI programs and events. By growing the community of engaged followers, the Social Media Specialist will introduce an ever-growing audience to Ayn Rand’s ideas and to ARI offerings. This work will help members of the online community to better understand Rand’s ideas and to apply them in improving their lives while advancing ARI’s mission of spreading Objectivism.

This position is remote and reports to the Marketing Director.

The ideal candidate will have the following qualifications:

• Familiarity with Ayn Rand’s writings and knowledge of Objectivism.

• Candidates should have experience managing Facebook, Twitter and Instagram accounts, and a willingness to learn to use other social media platforms and related tools. Experience with pay-per-click advertising and search engine optimization would be beneficial but is not required.

• Excellent professional and interpersonal communication, attention to detail, organizational and problem-solving skills, as well as the ability to work independently.

Social Media Specialist responsibilities:

• Build a growing and engaged community of followers across social media platforms.

• Update and moderate social media platforms to engage followers and connect them with compelling content.

• Drive traffic to product and event registration pages and ARI content.

• Plan and write key messages to promote ARI activities and programs.

• Collect statistics and measurements of community engagement.

• Keep up-to-date on and advise management on trends, innovations and best practices in social media.

• Work with the marketing team, support the creation of and monitor social media advertising for events and programs.
